

THE NEW YORK FLUTE CLUB TABLE & TAG SALE

at the New York Flute Fair, Sunday, April 3, 2016
Faculty House at Columbia University, West 116th Street
8:30 am-6:00 pm

Sales of members' items

We provide a table to sell NYFC members' publications and recordings. You set the price; the flute club takes a 10% commission and sends you a check for the proceeds after the fair. Bring up to 10 items to the table any time from 8:30 am on; we'll log them in and take your contact and pricing information. By 6:00 pm at the latest, you'll need to collect any unsold items.

The Tag Sale

Clean out your closets! Do you have three CDs of the Boismortier concertos? Extra copies of the Andersen etudes? Vinyl you no longer play? Duplicate figurines? Please bring donations of used music, LPs, CDs, collectibles, etc. for the tag sale any time from 8:30 am on. We're happy to provide receipts for tax purposes. We price to sell (!), and all proceeds benefit the activities of the flute club.

NYFC merchandise

As always, we'll have copies of NYFC publications and recordings, as well as our distinctive flute polishing cloths.

Come shop! Stock up for end-of-year gifts for your students and teachers.
Questions: contact Nancy Toff (nancy.toff@oup.com; 212-772-1343)