Guest Artist

Karl-Heinz Schütz

Solo flute, Vienna State Opera Orchestra and Vienna Philharmonic

Sunday, February 25, 2018

Faculty House at Columbia University

New York City

(enter through the Wien Courtyard, off 116th Street between Amsterdam Avenue and Morningside Drive)

9:00 am-8:00 pm

Karl-Heinz Schütz, solo flutist of the Vienna Philharmonic and the Vienna State Opera orchestra, previously held the same positions with the Stuttgart Philharmonic and the Vienna Symphony. He has appeared as soloist across Europe and Japan. A student of Eva Amsler, Philippe Bernold, and Aurèle Nicolet, Mr. Schütz won first prizes at the Carl Nielsen International Music Competition (1998) and the Kraków International Flute Competition (1999). Since 2005 Mr. Schütz has served as professor of flute at the Vienna Private University of Music and Art, and he gives masterclasses throughout Europe.

VENUE INFORMATION

Directions: http://facultyhouse.columbia.edu/files/facultyhouse/web/Faculty_House_Directions_0.pdf

Parking: Street parking is readily available in the area. For further details on blocks available for street parking and rates at local parking lots, check www.nyc.bestparking.com.

Food: There are many delis and coffee shops on Broadway and Amsterdam Avenue. There will be coffee service at Faculty House.

GUEST ARTIST KARL-HEINZ SCHÜTZ

Warm up Viennese Style: You could have two shots of espresso and lots of whipped cream or save the calories and bring your flute to warm up with Karl-Heinz Schütz.

Masterclass on Mozart with Karl-Heinz Schütz: Internationally renowned for his scholarship and brilliant teaching, Mr. Schütz will share his insights into the essence of Mozartean style, focusing on the concertos. Three students will be selected to perform. Interested flutists should send a recording of two contrasting works or movements, a short bio (up to 100 words), and contact info to Masterclass Coordinator Yevgeny Faniuk at yevgeny.faniuk@gmail.com by January 26.

Gala Concert: Our guest artist Karl-Heinz Schütz performs works of Gaubert, Schubert, Andersen, Bach, and Prokofiev.

CONCERTS

From Africa to the Americas: A Diasporic Salute to Black History Month: This program will feature African, African American, and Afro-Caribbean music, primarily arranged or composed by Richard Donald Smith, a Fulbright Scholar with extensive experience in Africa. He will perform with assisting musicians.

Winners of the 2018 Young Musicians Contest in Recital. Come hear the top players in our competitions for pre-college flutists, the rising stars of the next generation.

Student Ensembles Showcase Concert: Teachers, if you would like your flute ensemble to perform at the Fair, please contact Yeami Kim at yeami.kim@gmail.com by January 26.

Chamber Music for Flute Quartet: Works of Higdon, Mower, McGinty, Bozza, deLise, and Gershwin performed by the Philadelphia Flute Quartet.

WORKSHOPS, PRESENTATIONS, AND SPECIAL EVENTS

Jazz 101: Tips on improvising and fitting in: jazz, pop, and more, with Chip Shelton.

Cracking Stage Fright: How to Snap from Fear to FUN! with Kristen Gygi

Busting Breathing Mysteries and Myths: Alexander Technique expert Lea Pearson shares her top tips: Learn the secret role of the diaphragm, why you really can't get enough air, and how sitting up straight makes breathing worse. If you experience any limitation in breathing, this workshop is a must! Bring your flute and any questions you may have.

Flutes on Fire! Join us for a hands-on workshop that explores extended playing techniques, movement, and the spoken word led by integrative-arts flutists Nina Assimakopoulos and Zara Lawler. The workshop culminates in a group improvisation that includes beat boxing and features solo and small ensemble performance demonstrations. Please bring your flutes!

A Tribute to Paul Dunkel, hosted by Ed Joffe. Paul Dunkel, longtime principal flutist of the NYC Ballet, is one of the last direct links to the American tradition of flute playing created by William Kincaid. He has also been a champion of contemporary music as both flutist and conductor. The program will include a video interview and a performance of Dunkel's Quatre Visions, a humorous musical summary of many of the great works, both solo and orchestral, for flute performed by Laura Conwesser, Susan Palma-Nidel, Rie Schmidt, and Tanya Witek.

Illuminate the Creative Process: Composers Evelyn Simpson-Curenton and Amanda Harberg will offer an accessible glance into how composers create and construct an emotionally and spiritually communicative piece of music. Flutist Julietta Curenton will emcee the panel discussion and will perform each piece that is discussed.

#WeBringFlowers: Cobus du Toit, flute professor at the UMass, Amherst and the Longy School of Music, will perform six socially conscious commissions that either directly revolt against or courageously confront the violence that is prevalent in modern society.

Flute and Electronics: A lecture-recital and demonstration of basic equipment and software to incorporate the use of electronics in flute performance, including a brief introduction to extended techniques. With Patricia Cardona, who studied at IRCAM and the Ecole Normale de Musique via NYU Paris.

How to make your performance more HIP: Baroque flutist Mili Chang and harpsichordist Dongsok Shin demonstrate the concept of HIP (historically informed performance) in Baroque performance practice and show how to apply appropriate styles to performance on the modern flute.

William Kincaid: Principles of Phrasing. A masterclass with flutist-composer Katherine Hoover, who studied with Kincaid at Curtis, on his legendary teaching, in particular the phrasing of the Kincaid-Tabuteau school.

The Business of Music: Cosmo Buono and Barry Alexander help flutists better understand the business aspects of working as a classical musician. How to choose repertoire, build a website, and do marketing, publicity, and strategic career planning.

The Great White Way: Freelancing in the Big Apple: A panel discussion chaired by Broadway veteran Sheryl Henze.

The Voice and History of the Flute in Jazz: Flutist Andrea Brachfeld traces the history of the flute in jazz from the first recorded jazz flute solo in 1927 to the present day.

ANNUAL FLUTE FAIR EVENTS

New York Flute Club Competition: The NYFC Competition has been recognizing rising artists for more than four decades. Previous winners have gone on to distinguished solo careers and positions in major orchestras, and they teach in top conservatories and colleges. Preliminary and final rounds of our 2018 competition for flutists ages 18-27 will be held at the Fair. The winners will receive a cash honorarium and will be featured on the March 18 concert of the regular NYFC concert series. Information and application forms are available at our website, www.nyfluteclub.org. For further information, contact competition chair Kaoru Hinata at kaoruhin@gmail.com. Applications must be postmarked or submitted online by January 26, 2018.

Exhibits: Flute vendors and makers, music publishers, and other members of the music industry will exhibit their products. This is the perfect opportunity to shop for a new flute or look for newly published music.

NYFC Table & Tag Sale: Visit the NYFC table for CDs and publications by NYFC members and guest artists. NYFC members may sell up to 10 items at the exhibit table. We'll also have a Tag Sale of used music and flute-related items; contact Nancy Toff at nancy.toff@oup.com or bring them the morning of the fair and pick up unsold items by 6:00 pm.

Ensemble Program Reading Session: Bring your flutes, piccolos, alto and bass flutes and join in! with guest conductor Jayn Rosenfeld. For more info, contact Mark Vickers, maestrome@aol.com.
