GUEST ARTIST — JENNIFER GRIM

Jennifer Grim is professor and chair of the Department of Instrumental Performance at the Frost School of Music, University of Miami, and president of the National Flute Association. She is a member of Solidaire, a flute and percussion duo, and resident flutist for Ensemble Flageolet, a contemporary music group. For over two decades she was the flutist of the award-winning Zephyros Wind and the New York Chamber Soloists, and she continues to appear regularly with leading ensembles such as the Boston Chamber Music Society and Alpenglow Chamber Music Festival. Her wide-ranging collaborations include performances with the Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center, St. Luke's Chamber Ensemble, American String Quartet, and members of the Takács and St. Lawrence Quartets.

Her solo album, Through Broken Time, affirms her deep commitment to contemporary music and diverse compositional voices and features works by David Sanford, Julia Wolfe, Tania León, Alvin Singleton, Allison Loggins-Hull, and Valerie Coleman. The New York Times named it one of "5 Albums You Can Listen to Right Now."

Jennifer Grim's appearance is made possible in part by the generous support of the Wm. S Haynes Co.
